

SECRET

Bound volume, 118 typed pages

VOL 1, HISTORY OF CENSORSHIP IN COUNTER-
ESPIONAGE OPERATIONS 25X1
US Office of Censorship, Aug 1945, SECRET

SECRET

11/24/65

Chapt 1, summarizes history of censorship as a tool; Brit censorship in WW I and US censorship of Army G2-Brit activities between WWI and II and lack of US preparation-British Bermuda Sta 1940-revelations of German spy net operating in US-Brit coopn in establishing US chemical censorship-organization and functions Tech Ops Div (TOD)-conflicts with US Intell Agencies-Letter fr Brit Censorship documenting their denial that spy existed in their org in WW I - activities of TOD-statistics on SW and crypto intercepts. Chapt 2, liaison with War, Navy, OSS, OSRD, FBI, Allied Censorship Chapt 3, lack of secret ink techniques and reliance on Brits-developmt of labs-work of NDRC Div 19.1-the several private labs subsequently to work for TSS; Chapt 4, Message Analysis prior to TOD- under TOD; Chapt 5 non-technical analysis of suspected or subversive mail-organization, functions, procedures; Chapt 6, watchlists.

Each chapter contains list of lessons learned and recommendations for successor organization, amongst them: "the need for a central intell organization".

SECRET